

LEE WINKLER

(Lee's photo is displayed in the hallway of the school administration building)

CLASS OF 1994

Lee started surfing and competing in his local board riders club at the age of 12 and surfed his way to the elite of world surfing, the World Championship Tour. Lee competed with the best surfers on the planet for 10 years, successfully competing against surfers like Kelly Slater, Andy Irons and Mark Occhilupo. Lee has been ranked as high as 17th in the world rankings and was awarded an Australian Sports Medal.

Lee retired at the top of his game to spend time with his family and open the very successful Lee Winkler Surf School.

Years of hard work, dedication and determination propelled "Wink" to become one of the world's elite sportsmen.
